

What:

The Derby - a fabulous evening benefiting Northwest Center Kids

Mint Juleps. Big Hats. Southern Tradition. Join us to celebrate "The Run for the Roses" and children of all abilities. The evening will include (Southern) comfort food, entertainment and delicious drinks, live and silent auctions and a few surprise competitions.

When:

Friday May 4, 2012
Post Time: 6:00 p.m.

Where:

The Ruins, Seattle Washington. 570 Roy Street
"Seattle's Best Kept Secret," The Ruins, is a private dining club located in Seattle. In operation since 1993, The Ruins has set Seattle's standard for elegance and excellence in fine dining. As the benchmark for sophisticated hospitality, guests enjoy the serenity and grandeur of an exquisite setting.

Why:

To benefit Northwest Center Kids

100% of event proceeds will directly benefit much needed programs provided by Northwest Center Kids, providing integrated care and services to children with and without developmental disabilities through a blend of education, early intervention, and childcare including before/after school care, teen programs and summer camps.

1 in 6 children in the U.S. have a developmental condition.

Northwest Center Kids provides therapy services to 145 children every month.

The Derby will help Northwest Center serve many more children of all abilities!

INCLUSION. That is what drives Northwest Center. When people of all abilities live and work together, everyone benefits.

Since 1965 Northwest Center has been a leader in promoting the rights, independence, and inherent value of people with development disabilities. Over four decades later, Northwest Center has grown to become one of the largest community service organizations working with children and adults with developmental disabilities in the Pacific Northwest. Through Northwest Center Kids and Northwest Center Works, invaluable programs have been established to help thousands of families in our community.